THE PEACOCK
By Joe Godden
To a world of "magic" the inescapable enchantment of the Indian jungle; of river, forest, villages; of wild elephants and sturdy tigers; birds and deer and monkeys; in a glittering yet shadowy realm, come a small group of people to live a little while. A few old friends return after many years and an intervening war; to a reunion in a jungle camp. They come to hunt and fish and to find again, if possible, the halcyon days; they once knew. A drama of all their lives is worked against the background of the jungle and its inhabitants. What happens is inevitable and with a great sense of the reality of the people and the exotic background.

RAINBOW ROYALS
By Garland Roark
In 1850 the Boston shippers were bursting with activity; the California gold fields had furnished a lush goal for the fastest ships that could be built. Captain James Quick, wild and daring; Captain Bill, his brother, with energy and devil-may-care recklessness, raced wildly from Boston to San Francisco for gold and for the love of Ellen Appleton, daughter of the Appleton Line. This tale of adventure is also a vivid glimpse of an even more ancient rivalry—men against the sea. The author already has two successful novels to his credit, "The Wake of the Red Witch" and "Fair Wind to Java."

WALK WITH THE DEVIL
By Elliott Arnold
The author of the popular book "Blood Brothers," has placed his new novel in an Italian mountain village. Fast moving yet thoughtful, this story concerns itself with preventing the retreating Germans from blowing up a vital bridge. Two brothers are involved on opposite sides in the melodramatic and intense plot. But a far more important feature is the conflict of character and moral issues involved. A very stimulating book.

Consider how much more you often suffer from your anger and grief, than from those very things for which you are angry and grieved.—Marcus Antonius.

Willard of Ogden, Utah.

Mrs. Baker's resignation as chairman of the nominating committee also was accepted. Plans were outlined for a paper and rag drive on March 14 with prizes awarded for different grade groups. The school auditorium will be headquarters for the drive, it was announced. $14.85 was collected as Walteria PTA's founders day offering, according to Mrs. R. T. McNulty, president.

Michael Paisley makes lending a friendly business

This is the friendly manager of the local Personal Finance Company office. Even though lending money to folks here in Torrance is his full-time job, he believes that no one should borrow unnecessarily. But when a loan is to a person's advantage, he likes to provide funds here with needed cash promptly and privately.

He gets a lot of satisfaction out of his job, for the service he renders is a helpful one. And there's no "doing-you-a-favor" attitude. He makes borrowing money a simple, friendly transaction. He makes loans to men and women both single and married, and everything is kept strictly private. No outsiders are involved. He arranges convenient monthly payments to fit every budget and charges are made only for the actual time the money is kept.

If you decide that a loan is to your advantage, be sure to come to see the Manager of the Personal Finance Company today. If you phone in advance, he will make all arrangements so that when approved all you have to do is to sign and pick up the cash. Or, if that's inconvenient, phone or write and he'll tell you how to get your loan entirely by mail.
